

University Laboratory School A Hawai'i Public Charter School

The University Laboratory School, a K-12 public charter school seeks qualified candidates for the position of Social Studies Teacher (high school) for the 2020-21 school year.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Baccalaureate degree in subject area or related field
- Knowledge of and experience in effective classroom management, student-centered learning, cooperative instructional strategies, and integrating technology
- Demonstrable knowledge of content area
- Ability to effectively communicate orally and in writing to students, parents, administration, teachers, and the community in a professional manner
- Ability to obtain a valid State of Hawaii Teaching License in social studies within three (3) years of employment

Desirable Qualifications:

- Master's degree in subject area or related field
- Experience teaching in an educational research environment
- Extensive experience in teaching in a multicultural and diverse learning environment
- Experience teaching heterogeneously grouped classes
- Experience teaching within the Google Apps for Education Suite
- Knowledge of and experience teaching ULS/Curriculum Research & Development Group (CRDG) developed programs

To apply:

Send a letter of interest indicating how the applicant meets the required qualifications, resume/vitae and transcripts (transcript copies acceptable, however, official transcripts are required at time of hire) and the names and contact information of three (3) professional references.

Interested applicants must mail, email or hand deliver required documents to the address listed below, no later than July 21, 2020 or until filled.

Email:

employment@universitylaboratoryschool.org

Mail or Hand deliver:

University Laboratory School
Attention: Keoni Jeremiah, Principal
1776 University Ave. UHS 3- Room 115
Honolulu, Hawaii 96822