

Privacy Rights

At the University Laboratory School, we provide information on your privacy rights and our compliance with federal regulations such as Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Protection of Pupil Rights Amendment (PPRA), Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA), Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), and Human Subjects Research through our ULS Student-Parent Handbook, Agreement to Participate, Acceptable Use Policy, and Release Form (which covers students work, images, and likenesses).

The Hawai'i State Department of Education also monitors information and privacy compliance for all public school students in Hawai'i. The Hawai'i Department of Education issues this Annual Notification of Privacy Rights:

“Know your privacy rights as they apply to 1) student record information; 2) directory information; 3) surveys and other information collection; and 4) military recruitment information. For more information on your privacy rights, the laws that protect them, and how to exercise your rights, contact your school administrator or visit <http://bit.ly/FERPAHI>.”
