UNIVERSITY LABORATORY SCHOOL GOVERNING BOARD IS SEEKING NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD MEMBERS

The University Laboratory School (ULS) is a public charter school. The mission of the school is to serve as an experimental site for researching and developing innovations in teaching, learning, and assessment in grades K-12 while providing a high quality education for its students.

The University Laboratory School Governing Board is comprised of dedicated individuals who believe in the mission, philosophy and academic program of this very unique and vibrant school. The Board oversees and is responsible for the financial, organizational, and academic viability of ULS, the implementation of the charter, the organization and management of ULS and its curriculum, and the monitoring of compliance with applicable federal and state laws.

The Board consists of thirteen (13) members. In selecting board members, consideration shall be given to persons who:

1. Provide the Board with a diversity of perspectives and a level of objectivity that accurately represent the interests of the school, students, and the surrounding community;
2. Demonstrate an understanding of best practices of board governance; and
3. Possess strong financial and academic management and oversight abilities, as well as curriculum development, human resource, and fundraising experience.

If you are interested in being considered as a governing board member, please submit your Resume and a personal statement as to why you wish to serve as part of the University Laboratory Governing Board.

Please submit your resume and a personal statement to:

Keoni Jeremiah, ULS Principal (keoni_jeremiah@universitylaboratoryschool.org) and Everett Ohta, ULS Governance Committee Chairperson (everett.ohta@gmail.com).

We appreciate your willingness and consideration to participate and be involved.
